

Becoming a Web 2.0 Philanthropy
Thursday, May 17, 2012 ~ 2:00–3:30 pm, ET
Speaker Bios

Welcome

Keith Greene, Director of Membership
Council on Foundations

Keith Greene, SPHR, is the Council's Director of Membership. Previously, he served as membership director for BoardSource, and with the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), serving as Vice President of Membership and Workforce Readiness.

Moderator

Debra J. Pérez, Assistant Vice President, Research and Evaluation
Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

Pérez is responsible for helping to drive the evaluation, measurement, and assessment priorities of the foundation. She also has been responsible for program development in the areas of racial/ethnic disparities, fellows and scholars' programs, research in Latino and minority health and health care issues, and public health.

Presenters

Steve Downs, Chief Technology and Information Officer
Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

As chief technology and information officer, Downs ensures that the foundation's technology strategy and operations are aligned with its organizational plans. Since joining RWJF in 2002, he has served as team leader of the RWJF Pioneer portfolio, assistant vice president of the health group, and as a senior program officer. He focuses on bringing the benefits of health IT to the mission of improving health and health care.

Claire Gibbons, Senior Program Officer
Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

Since joining the foundation in 2007, Gibbons has worked on improving the quality of health care for patients with chronic conditions and serves as senior program officer for the evaluation of Aligning Forces for Quality, a national program to work toward high-quality, patient-centered, and equitable care. She has written and presented in the areas of child welfare, substance abuse, child victimization, diabetes, and end-of-life care.